Looking for a heartwarming and feel-good read to escape into this winter? Look no further than Escape to the Country in 2024 by Victoria Walters, the perfect book for fans of Escape to the Country, The Durrells, and Call the Midwife.

Escape to the Country in 2024 is the story of two people who find love in the most unexpected of places. When city girl Emma inherits a cottage in the countryside, she decides to leave her fast-paced life behind and start afresh. But she soon realizes that country life isn't all it's cracked up to be. She misses her friends, her job, and the convenience of city living. But as she begins to explore her new surroundings, she starts to fall in love with the charm of the countryside and the people who live there.

One day, Emma meets Tom, a handsome farmer who is struggling to keep his family farm afloat. Tom is kind, funny, and hardworking, and Emma is immediately drawn to him. But Tom is reluctant to get involved with Emma, who he sees as a city girl who will never understand his world. However, as they spend more time together, Tom begins to realize that there is more to Emma than meets the eye.

Escape to the Country in 2024 is a heartwarming and feel-good romance that will appeal to fans of Escape to the Country, The Durrells, and Call the Midwife. It is a story about love, family, and finding your place in the world.
