If the steamy love triangles and lavish costumes of "Bridgerton" have ignited your passion for Regency romance, then prepare to delve into these captivating tales that will set your heart racing:

As the second installment in Julia Quinn's beloved "Bridgerton" series, "The Viscount Who Loved Me" follows the captivating tale of Anthony Bridgerton, the eldest and most sought-after bachelor in London. Despite his reputation as a rake, Anthony is determined to find a suitable wife. Enter Kate Sheffield, a strong-willed and independent woman who challenges his preconceptions and ignites a passion he never expected.

Step into the scandalous world of Regency England with "When He Was Wicked," the prequel to the "Bridgerton" series. This intoxicating tale explores the forbidden love between a young and rebellious Lady Whistledown and the enigmatic Duke of Hastings, Simon Basset. As their paths intertwine, they must navigate the treacherous waters of society and their own undeniable desires.

Venture beyond the confines of Mayfair in "A Rogue of One's Own," where Tessa Dare introduces us to a brilliant and unconventional heroine, Lady Lucie. Caught in an arranged marriage, Lucie finds solace in the enigmatic and alluring Lord Peckham. Together, they embark on a passionate affair filled with danger and forbidden desires.

Relive the magic that captivated Netflix audiences with "The Duke and I," the first book in the "Bridgerton" series. This enchanting romance follows the story of Daphne Bridgerton, a young woman determined to secure a suitable husband. Fate intervenes when she crosses paths with Simon Basset, the enigmatic Duke of Hastings. Their marriage of convenience soon blossoms into a passionate and irresistible love.

Discover the heart-wrenching tale of Marina Thompson in "To Sir Phillip, With Love," the fourth installment in the "Bridgerton" series. After a series of setbacks, Marina finds herself the reluctant companion to Sir Phillip Crane. As they navigate the complexities of grief and unspoken desires, their connection deepens into a love that transcends their expectations.

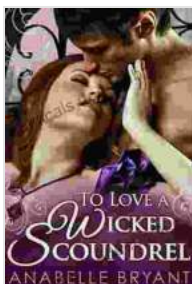

Immerse yourself in a captivating tale of intrigue and romance with "The Countess Conspiracy" by Courtney Milan. Penelope Marbury, a struggling artist, finds herself entangled in a dangerous conspiracy when she becomes the target of a ruthless villain. Enter Lord Julian Hawthorne, a charming and enigmatic man who offers his protection, but whose motives remain shrouded in mystery.

Escape into a world of gothic romance and forbidden passion with "Devil in Winter" by Lisa Kleypas. This captivating tale follows the story of Evangeline, a strong-willed lady, and Sebastian, a mysterious and brooding Lord. As they are thrown together in a secluded castle during a snowstorm, the lines between desire and danger blur, leading to an unforgettable and intoxicating affair.

This curated selection of heart-racing Regency romances offers a literary escape into a world of passion, longing, and historical allure.
