

Research and Practice for Change: Routledge Research in Sport Business and Management

The Routledge Research in Sport Business and Management series publishes high-quality research on the business and management of sport. The series covers a wide range of topics, including sport marketing, sport finance, sport governance, and sport law. The articles in the series are written by leading scholars in the field of sport management and provide valuable insights into the latest research and best practices in the industry.

Women in Sport Leadership: Research and practice for change (Routledge Research in Sport Business and Management Book 9) by Melissa Pilgrim

★★★★★ 5 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 4064 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 184 pages

Series Editors

The series is edited by a team of leading scholars in the field of sport management, including:

- Professor Simon Chadwick, Salford Business School, University of Salford, UK

- Professor David Shilbury, Loughborough University, UK
- Professor Sue Bridgewater, University of Technology Sydney, Australia
- Professor Paul Downward, University of Stirling, UK
- Professor J. Edward Sanderson, University of South Carolina, USA

Aims and Scope

The Routledge Research in Sport Business and Management series aims to provide a forum for the publication of high-quality research on the business and management of sport. The series covers a wide range of topics, including:

- Sport marketing
- Sport finance
- Sport governance
- Sport law
- Sport economics
- Sport media
- Sport tourism
- Sport event management

The series is committed to publishing research that is both theoretically rigorous and practically relevant. The articles in the series are written by leading scholars in the field of sport management and provide valuable insights into the latest research and best practices in the industry.

Target Audience

The Routledge Research in Sport Business and Management series is targeted at a wide range of readers, including:

- Academics and researchers in the field of sport management
- Sport industry professionals
- Students of sport management
- Policymakers and regulators in the sport sector

Benefits of Publishing in the Series

There are a number of benefits to publishing in the Routledge Research in Sport Business and Management series, including:

- High visibility and impact: The series is published by Routledge, a leading academic publisher with a global reach.
- Rigorous peer review: All articles in the series are subject to a rigorous peer review process to ensure that they meet the highest standards of academic excellence.
- Wide dissemination: The series is available in both print and electronic formats, ensuring that your research will be widely disseminated.
- Expert editorial support: The series editors are leading scholars in the field of sport management and will provide expert guidance throughout the publication process.

Submission Guidelines

If you are interested in submitting a proposal for the Routledge Research in Sport Business and Management series, please

Women in Sport Leadership: Research and practice for change (Routledge Research in Sport Business and Management Book 9) by Melissa Pilgrim

★★★★★ 5 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 4064 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 184 pages

Time Out for Knee Replacement: Essential Information for Patients Undergoing Total Knee Arthroplasty

Total knee replacement (TKR) is a surgical procedure that involves replacing the damaged knee joint with an artificial implant. It is a common...

Clarinet Fundamentals: A Systematic Fingering Course for Beginners

Welcome to the exciting world of clarinet playing! Whether you're a complete beginner or have some prior musical experience, our systematic fingering course is...