Early Life and Education

Sister Sarah Pick Win With Steve was born on March 8, 1930, in a small village in rural Mississippi. From a young age, she showed a strong sense of compassion and a desire to make a difference in the world. Despite the challenges and prejudices she faced as an African American woman growing up in the Jim Crow South, she excelled in her studies and earned a scholarship to attend college.

In 1952, Sister Sarah graduated from Tougaloo College with a degree in social work. She then went on to earn a master's degree in social work from the University of Chicago.

Journey into Service

After completing her education, Sister Sarah began her career as a social worker in Chicago. She worked tirelessly to improve the lives of the city's most vulnerable residents, providing counseling, support, and advocacy for families, children, and the elderly.

In 1965, Sister Sarah joined the Sisters of the Holy Family, a Catholic religious order dedicated to serving the poor and marginalized. This marked a significant turning point in her life, as she found a community of like-minded individuals who shared her passion for service.

Impact on the Community

Sister Sarah dedicated her life to empowering others. She founded several organizations that provided much-needed services to the community, including:

- The Sarah's Circle Women's Center, which provided a safe and supportive space for women to learn new skills, build relationships, and access resources.
- The Mary's House Transitional Home, which provided housing and support services for homeless women and their children.
- The Martin Luther King Jr. Health Center, which provided affordable healthcare services to low-income residents.

Sister Sarah's work had a profound impact on the lives of countless individuals. She was instrumental in breaking down barriers, challenging injustices, and creating opportunities for those who had been left behind.

Legacy of Service and Empowerment

Sister Sarah Pick Win With Steve passed away on January 15, 2023, at the age of 92. She left behind a legacy of service, empowerment, and unwavering faith that continues to inspire others.

Through her work and example, Sister Sarah taught us the importance of compassion, empathy, and the power of one person to make a difference in the world. She will be remembered as a tireless advocate for social justice, a champion for the oppressed, and a true servant leader.

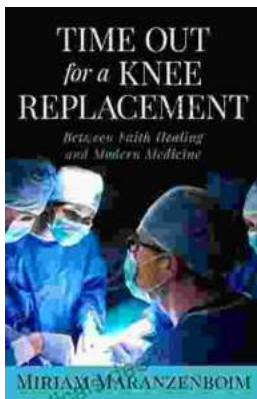

Sister Sarah Pick Win With Steve's life and work is a testament to the transformative power of service and empowerment. Through her unwavering commitment to helping others, she touched countless lives and left an enduring legacy that will continue to inspire generations to come.
