

Thousand Miles to Graceland: A Detailed Exploration of the 2001 Heist Comedy

Thousand Miles to Graceland is a 2001 heist comedy film directed by Brian Robbins and starring Kevin Costner, Kurt Russell, and Courteney Cox. The film follows a group of Elvis Presley impersonators who attempt to rob a casino during an Elvis convention. Thousand Miles to Graceland is a fun and exciting film with a great cast and an engaging story.

A Thousand Miles to Graceland by Victoria Woods

★★★★☆ 4.5 out of 5

Language : English

File size : 1685 KB

Text-to-Speech : Enabled

Screen Reader : Supported

Print length : 274 pages

Plot

The film opens with a group of Elvis Presley impersonators, led by Wayne (Kevin Costner), practicing their act for an upcoming Elvis convention. The group is made up of a variety of characters, including a former lounge singer (Kurt Russell), a Vietnam War veteran (Dennis Quaid), and a young woman (Courteney Cox) who is trying to escape her abusive husband. As the group prepares for the convention, they learn that a casino is going to be holding a special event featuring a rare Elvis Presley artifact. The group decides to rob the casino, using their Elvis impersonations to gain access to the event.

The heist goes off without a hitch, and the group escapes with the artifact. However, they soon find themselves being pursued by the FBI and the casino's security forces. The group must now use all of their skills to stay one step ahead of the authorities and get away with the loot.

Cast

The cast of Thousand Miles to Graceland is one of its strongest assets. Kevin Costner is excellent in the lead role as Wayne, a charismatic and determined Elvis impersonator. Kurt Russell is also great as Chazz, a former lounge singer who is struggling to find his place in life. Dennis Quaid is memorable as Elvis, a Vietnam War veteran who is haunted by his past. Courteney Cox is also good as Kelly, a young woman who is trying to escape her abusive husband. The rest of the cast, including Christian Slater, Val Kilmer, and Bruce Campbell, are also all excellent.

Themes

Thousand Miles to Graceland is a film about the power of dreams. The film's characters are all people who are trying to achieve their dreams, whether it is becoming a successful Elvis impersonator, finding a new career, or escaping an abusive relationship. The film shows that anything is possible if you set your mind to it. The film also explores the themes of friendship and loyalty. The group of Elvis impersonators are all there for each other, even when they are faced with danger. The film shows that true friends are worth more than anything.

Thousand Miles to Graceland is a fun and exciting film with a great cast and an engaging story. The film is a celebration of the power of dreams and the importance of friendship. Thousand Miles to Graceland is a film that will stay with you long after the credits have rolled.

Additional Information

- The film was shot on location in Las Vegas, Nevada.
- The film's soundtrack features a number of Elvis Presley songs, as well as original songs by Bruce Springsteen and John Hiatt.
- The film was a critical and commercial success, grossing over $67 million worldwide.

A Thousand Miles to Graceland by Victoria Woods

★ ★ ★ ★ ☆ 4.5 out of 5

Language : English

File size : 1685 KB

Text-to-Speech : Enabled

Screen Reader : Supported

Print length : 274 pages

FREE

DOWNLOAD E-BOOK

Time Out for Knee Replacement: Essential Information for Patients Undergoing Total Knee Arthroplasty

Total knee replacement (TKR) is a surgical procedure that involves replacing the damaged knee joint with an artificial implant. It is a common...

Clarinet Fundamentals: A Systematic Fingering Course for Beginners

Welcome to the exciting world of clarinet playing! Whether you're a complete beginner or have some prior musical experience, our systematic fingering course is...